Geography and Climate

Sri Lanka, an island nation in South Asia, boasts a diverse geography, with lush rainforests, towering mountains, and pristine beaches. The country's terrain is dominated by the Central Highlands, with peaks like Adam's Peak and Kirigalpoththa. The climate is tropical, with three main seasons: hot and dry (December to April), monsoon (May to September), and cool and dry (October to November). The north-east monsoon brings significant rainfall, while the south-west monsoon affects the western coast. Temperatures range from 22°C to 32°C (72°F to 90°F) throughout the year.

Day 1: Arrival and Colombo City Tour

Upon arrival at the airport, our representative will warmly welcome and assist you. Begin your Sri Lankan adventure with a scenic drive to Colombo, the country's vibrant commercial capital.

Discover the best of Colombo on a comprehensive city tour, featuring iconic landmarks and hidden gems. Explore the bustling Pettah Market, admire the stunning architecture of the Red Mosque, and stroll through the picturesque Vihara Mahadevi Park.

Visit the historic Race Course, the futuristic Colombo Port City, and the iconic Independence Square. Unwind in the evening with a relaxing stay at your hotel in Colombo. Overnight in Colombo.

Day 2: Colombo to Nuwara Eliya via Kitulgala

After a delicious breakfast at the hotel, embark on a scenic journey to Nuwara Eliya, a picturesque hill station nestled in the heart of Sri Lanka's tea country.

As you wind your way through misty roads and lush green tea plantations, the cool climate and English countryside atmosphere will transport you to a bygone era. Nuwara Eliya, once a British colonial retreat, is dotted with colonial bungalows, hedgerows, and a world-class golf course.

Experience the natural beauty of the hill country, with its endless waterfalls, rolling green valleys, and tea pluckers in vibrant saris. Take a leisurely hike or bike ride along the shores of Lake Gregory, and soak up the tranquil atmosphere. Overnight in Nuwara Eliya.

Day 3: Nuwara Eliya to Kandy via Tea Plantation

After breakfast, embark on a journey to the heart of Sri Lanka's tea country. Visit a renowned tea plantation and discover the art of Ceylon Tea production.

Take a guided tour of the tea factory, learning about the traditional tea-making process and the rich history behind this iconic brand. As you stroll through the lush green tea estates, breathe in the crisp mountain air and savor the scent of freshly brewed tea.

Later, proceed to Kandy, the last royal capital of Sri Lanka and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. Explore the city's rich cultural heritage, including the sacred Temple of the Tooth, a revered Buddhist site.

Experience the vibrant atmosphere of Kandy, strolling through the bustling markets, visiting the Kandy City Centre, and enjoying a cultural show featuring traditional music and dance.

Overnight in Kandy.

Day 4: Kandy to Colombo via Peradeniya and Pinnawala

After breakfast, visit the majestic Royal Botanical Gardens of Peradeniya, a 147-acre oasis of lush greenery and vibrant flora. Stroll through the beautifully landscaped gardens, admiring the orchid house, giant Javan fig tree, and other highlights.

Next, proceed to Pinnawala Elephant Orphanage, a sanctuary for rescued and orphaned elephants. Witness the heartwarming sight of baby elephants being bottle-fed and roam freely in their natural habitat. Observe these gentle giants taking a river bath, an unforgettable experience.

Later, transfer to Colombo, the vibrant commercial capital of Sri Lanka. Check-in to your hotel and relax. Overnight in Colombo.

Day 5: Departure

Bid farewell to Sri Lanka as your unforgettable journey comes to an end. Spend the morning at leisure, relaxing at the hotel or exploring Colombo's nearby attractions.

Later, you'll be escorted to the airport for your departure flight, carrying memories of Sri Lanka's stunning landscapes, rich culture, and warm hospitality.
