DISCRIPTION

Embark on an unforgettable journey along the USA's stunning East Coast, exploring three iconic destinations. Spend two nights in vibrant New York City, taking in the bright lights of Times Square, strolling through Central Park, and visiting world-class museums like the Met. Next, head to our nation's capital, Washington DC, where you'll spend two nights discovering historic landmarks like the White House, Lincoln Memorial, and Smithsonian Institution. Finally, venture to breathtaking Niagara Falls, where you'll spend a relaxing night taking in the majestic views and scenic beauty of this natural wonder. This 5-night adventure offers a perfect blend of city excitement, history, and natural splendor, showcasing the best of the East Coast.

Geography and Climate

The East Coast of the United States, encompassing New York, Washington DC, and Niagara, boasts a diverse geography and climate. The region's terrain ranges from the rugged Niagara Escarpment and the Appalachian Mountains to the coastal plains and urban landscapes of New York City and Washington DC. The climate is characterized by humid continental conditions, with cold winters and warm summers. Niagara experiences a more pronounced seasonal variation, with snowy winters and mild summers, while New York City and Washington DC have milder winters and hotter, more humid summers. The region's geography and climate support a wide range of ecosystems, from forests and wetlands to urban oases and coastal areas.
